We all can be influential in our communities. How do we achieve this while remaining true to ourselves and part of our communities? Hear from Indigenous, rural, farm and urban women about how they work to create positive change.

Organized by the Women's Information Network of Saskatchewan

Providing a forum where women from farm, rural, urban and other locations can connect.

with Mother Earth Justice Advocates
National Farmers Union Saskatchewan Region #6 Women's Advisory

Appreciation is expressed for the support of the Women Office

For women from out of town – we will broadcast the talks at the beginning of the session through Skype, that can also call a home phone. Please contact us if you would like to join by Skype or phone. RSVP for attending in-person is not necessary, but it is nice!
